

Quadrant III – References/Web links

Programme: Bachelor of Arts/Commerce/Science (First Year)

Subject: Environmental Studies

Paper Code: AECC

Paper Title: Environmental Studies

Unit: II Natural resources

Module Name: Case studies related to mining and its effect on siltation and loss of biodiversity

Module No: 13

Name of the Presenter: Dr. Jesly Araujo

---

Offline Resources:

Borkar M.R and Shinde P. G. 2018. Environmental studies. FY B.com (Sem-I) Shet publishers private limited.

Mahua Basu, S. Xaxier, SJ. 2016. Fundamentals of environmental studies. Cambridge university press.

Online Resources:

Surender Singh Chauhan (2010) Mining, Development and Environment: A Case Study of Bijolia Mining Area in Rajasthan, India. Journal of human ecology. DOI: 10.1080/09709274.2010.11906299.

Gonsalves M.J., Nair .S., Loka Bharathi .P. A., Chandramohan .D. (2009). Abundance and production of particle-associated bacteria and their role in a mangrove-dominated estuary. Aquatic Microbial Ecology. doi:

10.3354/ame01337

Parulekar A.H., Ansari Z.A., Ingole B.S. (1986). Effect of Mining Activities on the Clam Fisheries and Bottom Fauna of Goa Estuaries India, Proceedings of The Indian Academy Of Sciences - Animal Sciences.