

Quadrant II - Notes

Paper Code: POD 109

Module Name: Evaluation of Dayanand Bandodkar Decade

Module No: 20

Legislative Achievements of Dayanand Bandodkar:

- The Goa Daman and Diu Agricultural Tenancy Act (1964)
- Goa Daman & Diu Industrial Development Act (1965)
- Goa Daman & Diu Village Panchayats Regulations (Amendment) Act 1967
- Goa Daman & Diu Housing Board Act (1967)
- Goa Daman & Diu Municipalities Act (1968)
- Goa Daman & Diu Land Revenue Code (1968)
- Agricultural Labourers and Village Artisans Act (1971)
- Dayanand Bandodkar was responsible for laying the foundation of a good number of irrigation, industrial and infrastructural projects. He conceived and initiated the Selaulim Irrigation Project, the major communication links like the Mandovi and Zuari bridges and established industrial estates in Corlim and St. Jose de Areal.
- He also promoted/ established development agencies like Maharashtra State Finance Corporation, Maharashtra Small Scale industries Development Corporation and GDD Industries Development Corporation.
- A major contribution of Bandodkar was in the field of education. The Ministry opened 200 primary school, four colleges, established a secondary teacher's training college and post graduate department in 1965.

- Dayanand Bhandarkar contributed greatly in the field of sports, by establishing stadia and other infrastructure. He also was instrumental in developing forestry, transport and communication, parks and tourism.
- The Ministry expanded medical facilities to rural areas to some extent. The expansion of road and transport facilities.